Decline to Write New Business at the Figures Fixed by the State Commission.

NO RELIEF IN SIGHT JUST NOW

Senator Hudspeth Thinks It Will Be Necessary to Wait For Legislature.

The insurance communies have played their trump card. In circular letters sent to the El Paso local agents, the insurance companies doing business in Texas have notified their El Paso representatives that they will not renew policies expiring after July 11, where the property to be insured is either a mercaptile risk or is exposed by a mercantile risk.

Neither are the agents allowed to write new policies on the mercantile risks under the revised rates which were announced by the state fire rating board on June 28, and any renewals which had already been made upon policies due to expire on or after the 11th are ordered to be canceled and the policy returned to the company marked "spoiled."

The reason given by the insurance companies for this radical action is that they have been unable to satisfy them-selves that they can afford to assume the risks at the rates which were ordered by the rating board.

This means that El Paso merchants whose insurance policies will expire in the immediate future will be deprived of insurance until the legislature takes action at its special session on 19, or the insurance companies de cide to accept the new business at the reduced rates. Not all of the local local agents in El Paso have received these notifications, but it is thought that the netion of the insurance companies is & concerted one and will include all of companies doing business in the

for the insurance situation, and a num-ber of business men will be deprived of insurance protection. The mutual com-panies are not able to carry a sufficient ount of insurance to offer an adequate means of protection for the heavfly insured business district, the local agents say, while little or no aid from foreign companies can be expected, as these same agents say that all of the reliable companies are now operating in Texas.

Sensitor Claude B. Hudspeth stated
Monday morning that no relief could be obtained by means of a temporary injunction restraining the companies from canceling their policies or refusing to write new business. The insurance law under which the companies are now operating. Sensitor Hudspeth said, was framed for the companies and it is his opinion that it would be impossible to enjoin the companies under the existing law.

RECALLS "REVOLT" ALONG THE BORDER

Mexico City, Mex., July 11 .- News reaches here by mall of a riot in Puebla, state of Puebla, Mexico, on Thursday, as a result of the Mexican elections held two weeks ago, in which two were killed and a number wounded. Gendarme No. 322-the Mexicans number their gendarmes like so many cattle: they never go by names and Jose Rufz, a college professor, was killed, while Capt. Jose Moreno, chief of mounted police of Puebla, was so seriously stabbed that he cannot live. Many citizens were hauled off to the hospitals with broken heads and limbs, while the Puebla jail was filled with men arrested.

The students of the Puebla university desired to protest at the manner in which the elections had been held, but were prevented by the authorities. Finally last Thursday night a number of the students and professors decided to hold the parade of protest anyhow. They did. The police were called and failed to disperse the paraders, Then the gendarmes came and the fight spened. The mounted police, in reality cavalry, were called. The fight lasted two hours. After quiet had been restored nobedy was allowed on the street the rest of the night; and the university was placed under guard. People in the theaters were given per-If they did not go in crowds.
